

Pelham Free Public Library
Sales by Other Organizations Policy

Because space is limited and demands on staff time have increased, the following policy regarding the ongoing sale of goods at the Library has been adopted by the Pelham Library Board of Trustees.

No individual or organization will be allowed to display goods for sale on an ongoing basis at the library.

This policy relates only to the ongoing sale of goods and does not prohibit short events such as bake sales, book sales etc. provided they are staffed by a sponsoring Town-affiliated organization and all items are removed by the end of the sale days.

Approved by Library Trustees, October 2008
